

Other Points

The New Citizenship Law: 'Nepszabadsag' says that under the new law on Hungarian citizenship, Hungarian citizens can marry persons of foreign nationality without any special permission, the two parties keeping their original nationality. The law authorizes the Presidential Council to deprive Hungarian nationals of their citizenship if they gravely violate civic loyalty or are sentenced for a serious crime by either a Hungarian or foreign court. The Presidential Council has not so far exercised this right. (MTI 30.3.58)