

June 5, 1959

Romania -

Romania, as well as the Soviet Union and National China, has joined the International Theater Institute. A public meeting was called in Bucharest by the Trade Union Council to inform the public "on the World Peace Council and the Goerlitz Trade Union Conference." During the public meeting, participants unanimously called on the Geneva Conference of Foreign Ministers "to contribute to the settlement of the German problem."