The Hon. Sir Leslie Knox Munro,
United Nations Council,
United Nations, N.Y. City, N.Y.

Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing a copy of poem from my latest book of poems
"THIS WORLD OF OURS" which Dr. Bella Fabian has used very often and which I trust that you may use especially right now during the debate on Hungary.

If you care to distribute several copies to your associates you are at liberty to do so.

Sincerely,

Ben B. Lipset

"TO THE MASTERS OF THE KREMLIN"

BY

BEN B. LIPSET

Imperialism is the charge you hurl at our democracy
While you control, by iron fist, nations that once were free,
Latvia, Estonia, Lithuania, are they satisfied?
Or did you sieze their lands and all their rights denied?
Hungary, Bulgaria, Poland, and Romania too,
Are they sovereign states, or are they slaves to you?
You talk about self rule, dignity and peace.
This will come to pass when your cunning schemes do cease.
When your people, unafraid, to God can offer prayers,
When all your concentration camps are abolished everywhere,
When you, who rule by fear and might, have met your just reward,
Only then can this great world put away the sword.
Throughout the world church bells shall ring
And peace on earth proclaim.
Historians will record your deeds in everlasting shame.
