

INDONESIAN AGREEMENT--On Oct. 16 a trade agreement between Hungary and Indonesia was signed in Jakarta. According to this agreement in the coming year there will be an important increase in the exchange of goods between the two countries. Hungary will deliver to Indonesia railway rolling stock, ships, port and mine installations, complete industrial workshops, machines, textiles, pharmaceutical products. Indonesia will supply first of all rubber, copra, hides, coffee and spices. (Budapest, MTI, French, Oct. 17, 1957, 2200 GMT--L)
