

Die Presse (January 5, 1958)

The paper quotes the paper of the Hungarian refugees in Austria "Magyar Hirado" according to which the former Premier, Andras Hegedues returned lately with his family to Hungary. He is receiving a pension from the State and has an apartment in Bela Bartok Street in Budapest.

Hegedues and Party Secretary, Geroe, fled to Russia after the outbreak of the Revolution. They were deprived of their Party functions by the Kadar regime in December 1956.
