GARABET put up four pictures in his home. One represented STALIN, one LENIN, one CHURCHILL and the last, TRUMAN.

When asked about the reason for this eccentricity, he said: "I am a religious man. I say my prayers every morning and night, and I pray like this: "Our Father," in front of the first picture, "Who art in heaven," in front of the second one, "Hallowed be thy name," in front of the third picture (especially during the recent elections in Great Britain) and finally "Thy kingdom come" in front of the last one.
