

March 12, 1959

Romania - Central Committee decision on improvement of evening study courses severely criticizes weaknesses of these courses in the past; main objective is to improve "social composition" of students and produce new intelligentsia favorable to regime. A second economic and trade delegation is visiting France, headed by Minister of Construction (see situation reports, March 6 and 9).