DELIMAN Gheorghe, 42, thin, average height, toothless, married, two children, lives on Avrig street near the ex-King Ferdinand High School, is chief of the technical section of the plant. An old seaman, he was a prisoner in Soviet-Russia for four years. His brother-in-law is a major of Security. Lazy by nature and incapable, he is not a convinced Communist but an opportunist, dangerous and ready to do anything for profit. During the war he had served with the infantry regiment number 21. The section under his jurisdiction is composed of 115 persons whom he exploits in all manners possible. His disposition is always irritable.

BUZA Nicolae, 22, blond, blue eyes, originates from Transsylvania; uneducated, is president of the UTM and also chief of the fire-proof insulation section. He lives on Ferentari street near the ex-Muradian factory. His father who follows the dyer's trade remarried after the death of his wife; his brothers are vagabond criminals. When he served in the army he engaged in illicit operations, such as aiding Jews to pass secretly over the frontier. He is an active Party member, a habitual denouncer, a chronic alcoholic, and the superior of 40 employees. GOLDSTEIN(fnu), a woman, 40, blond, turned-up nose, blue eyes, average height, wears glasses, is a master of many languages and was the chief of the material section. In reality, her true function was in the political domain. She was an enthusiastic Party member, severe and unscrupulous in her dealing with subordinates. It was her custom
