

Situation Report - June 24, 1959

Romania - Although short notes on Gomulka's speech appeared in press, no details of party's plenary session were published.

On occasion of 15th anniversary of red liberation in 1944, when Romania declared war on Germany, meetings and conferences reported overfulfillment of work norms.

No new facts are known concerning Constantin Silvestri's decision to defect, following confused UPI report from Sydney (see Situation Report, June 22).
