EXPULSIONS

From ARAD, eight miles from the Hungarian border, 60 persons of Hungarian origin were expelled to JASSY near the Russian border. They were taken away on 3 or 4 July 1951 at night, by local units of Rumanian political police. Many of these persons had visa promises from the Israeli Legation. They had expected to leave ARAD in the near future.

DATE OF OBSERVATION: July 1951
