

ITEM No 3409

G
28 July 1951
A

RUMANIA

LABOR
Unions

A purge in the unions of the VALEA-PRAHOVEI district was the result of widespread grumbling which accompanied the introduction of new production norms. Several union officials have been accused of collaborating with and even inciting, dissatisfied workers. Newly appointed foremen are said to have been thoroughly screened for political reliability, and a strictly "military" discipline has been introduced.

DATE OF OBSERVATION: current period

EVAL. COMMENT:
Source : fairly reliable
Information: confirmed by other sources.