

712 N. Livingston
Indianapolis, Indiana
November 16, 1959

Mr. Dag Hammarsjold
Secretary-General of the U.N.
United Nations Building
New York, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

I am appealing to you to help save the lives of 150 teenage youths. These young heroes are part of the freedom fighters who fought so gallantly against the Soviet Russian tanks during the Hungarian uprising.

These youths have been sentenced to die on their eighteenth birthday. Some have already been executed by the inhuman killers from the Kremlin.

The following is a list of thirty-one young heroes:

Budapest

Aladar Tamas
Lorant Lipowetz
Gabriel Both
Bela Ballega
Andrew Zarnyika
Laszlo Gadinko

Miskolc

Daniel Krisko
Bela Reznayai
Dome Kubicza
Arpad Schuller
Karoly Seibal

Pecs

Steve Felszeghy
Joe Szasz
Andrew Borcsok
Lajos Istvanfi
Andrew Danos
Gaspar Zelenka
Charlie Forro
Jan Stefanics
Laszlo Deak

Nagykanizsa

Jeno Horvath
Adam Krajcsik
Erno Szedres
Ignac Iadas
Oszkar Fertsek
Gyula Szarnyas

Miskolc

Elek Sandor
Pal Dienes
Robert Szilasi
Sandor Garass

I appeal to you to use your influence to have Khrushchev suspend the sentence of the remaining youths .

In the eyes of the free world, he is responsible for the murder's committed in Budapest's Main Street secret yards.

Please save their lives.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Roberta Koning

Mrs. Roberta Koning

UNITED NATIONS
RECORDS CONTROL

1959 NOV 19 PM 2:04

712 N. Livingston
Indianapolis, Indiana

Mr. Dag Hammarsjold
Secretary-General of the U.N.
United Nations Building
New York, N. Y.