EVAL. COMMENT: None

Near AUGUSTOW (woj. Bialystok), on the Necko and Biale lakes there are two well-known hotels, which were constructed during the last years before the last war.

The first one's name is "Tourist Hotel" and the second one is called "Officers Hotel" (i.e. "Hotel Turystyczny" and "Hotel Officerski".)

These hotels were not damaged by the war and we were informed that the "Tourist Hotel" serves at present as a Rest Home for Polish workers. On 27th December 1952 an evening dance was organized for the workers of the nearby districts at the above-mentioned hotel.
