

Szeged Liberation Anniversary

Celebrations to mark the 13th anniversary of the liberation of Szeged were held there on 11th and 13th October. On 11th, there was a festive session of the City Council. Afterwards, wreaths were laid at the Soviet war memorial. Delegations representing the "sister cities" of Odessa and Lodz, the Soviet Army and the Soviet Embassy in Budapest attended. (Budapest 19.00, 11.10.57)

Monument to "Victims of Counter-revolution": At the request of the inhabitants of Kecskemet, the local committee of the Hungarian Socialist Workers' Party will erect a memorial to the victims of the counter-revolution. The memorial will be unveiled on 4th November. (Budapest 21.00, 8.10.57)

Sztalinvaros Council Meeting: The Executive of the Sztalinvaros Town Council met on 11th October and decided to name one of the large squares of the town "7th of November Square" to mark the 40th anniversary of the October Revolution. The Council also decided to construct a "Pioneer Railway" in Sztalinvaros. Work on the project is to begin on 7th November. A brickworks is also to be built in the town. (MTI 11.10.57)