

Election Nominations

Nominations of candidates in the March 5 election of Grand National Assembly deputies and Peoples' Councils members have begun in the Bucharest area at various factory, office, etc., meetings. These nominees are put forward by the People's Democratic Front and their nomination simultaneously assures their election or re-election as the case may be in March.

Bloc and International

Minister of Trade Gogu Radulescu has returned from Moscow after signing the new protocol on Soviet-Rumanian trade.

The Albanian ambassador to Bucharest held a press conference yesterday on the 15th anniversary of the Albanian People's Republic. The anniversary was also noted by the Rumanian radio.