

The Invitation to Hammarskjöld

Gyaros told journalists that no official reply had as yet been received to the invitation issued by the Hungarian Government to the UN Secretary-General Hammarskjöld. However, a UN spokesman had already declared that Hammarskjöld's visit must depend on the report of the so-called Committee of Five. "We should be sorry", Gyaros said, "if Hammarskjöld were to abandon the idea of convincing himself personally of our achievements in the restoration of the destruction caused by the counter-revolution."
