

Trade Agreement

Finland and Rumania signed an agreement for 1961 trade on January 23 in Helsinki. The Finnish foreign ministry announced that Finland would buy Rumanian petroleum products, in exchange for wood and paper products, dried milk and machine products. The total amount agreed upon for this year's exchange, $ 3.8 million, is smaller than the total for last year.