

March 23, 1959

Romania -

There continues to be no indication that emigration of Romanian Jews to Israel has resumed. Regime Saturday took part in festivities honoring birth centenary of noted Jewish writer. Trade and payments agreement signed with Red China; no quantities specified. Romania will supply mainly industrial equipment and China mainly raw materials. Regime features further reports of "voluntary" youth work, including collection of scrap metal.