Dear Sirs:

October is the second anniversary of the Hungarian revolt. The revolt seems to have failed and yet it has succeeded.

Many of us will not forget the cruelty of the communists especially of the U. N. ^{II}fixed on those terrible events of October and November, 1956.

May I suggest that you proclaim November fourth a day of mourning for the murdered Hungarian patriots.

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) Susan Thompson

against "their" ^{II}working people"; but there are some who have forgotten. Let us remind them of the rape of Hungary.

We may seem to have failed the Hungarians in not immediately coming to their aid; but this might have started another war; perhaps World War ^{III}.

There can be no doubt however that we have failed them by not keeping the attention of the world and
