The minister, MILNIKIEL Eugeniusz, came to Soviet Russia at the outbreak of the war and joined General ANDERS' army. He went with Gen. ANDERS via Persia to Palestine, where he was sentenced to three years in prison as a Russian spy. However, after a few months in prison, he was exchanged for another Pole and returned to Russia around 1943. He was active in the Soviet-sponsored Committee of Polish Patriots.
After the war he was Polish minister in TEHERAN and OTTAWA before he came to Sweden about a year ago.

Reportedly the two radio operators MISIAK Stanislaw and GOLINSKI Kazimierz are very important persons at the legation. They are almost totally isolated from the other members of the legation, and dispose of about four rooms, into which only the minister and the military attaché are said to be admitted. They live in the legation building and are generally considered to be members of the UB.

MAYZELES Kulo and Rika are likewise suspected as UB members. They came to Sweden about 15 months ago in connection with a law suit between the Polish firm Polimex and the Swedish firm Swedab. They are believed to be responsible for thorough changes within the personnel of the commercial department.

MEDRZES Maria, the mother-in-law of the press attaché, is also an important person, being the mother of General GROSZ (fnu), who used to hold a responsible post in the Polish Foreign Office. (Why her name is different from his, is not known.)

BONARSKI Adam, the commercial naval attaché and FRATCZAK Stanislaw of the consular section, are known as Communists.

SPYCHAJOWA-KURKOWSKA Janina, commercial section, won the world title in arrow shooting at the Olympic games in BERLIN in 1936.

DATE OF OBSERVATION: July 1951

EVAL. COMMENT: Source: usually reliable;
Information: probably true.

Re MEDRZES Maria, mother of GROSZ: the explanation is simple, as GROSZ's real name is MEDRZES, and GROSZ an assumed name (previously his journalistic pen pseudonym before 1939.)
