

M. Shann

REPORT OF THE
SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE PROBLEM OF HUNGARY

CHAPTER I - ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

1. Introduction
2. The Witnesses
3. Conduct of Hearings
4. Documentary Material
5. Attempts to observe in Hungary and to meet Mr. Imre Nagy
6. Arrangement of the Report of the Committee
7. General Observations on the Work of the Committee

CHAPTER II -

A Brief History of the Hungarian Uprising

CHAPTER III - THE UPRISING AS SEEN BY THE USSR AND BY THE GOVERNMENT OF JANOS KADAR

1. The Issues at Stake
2. Justification of Soviet Intervention
3. The Progress of Events
 - (a) Legitimate grievances
 - (b) Preparations for counter-revolution
 - (c) Reaction in the saddle
4. Summary

CHAPTER IV - SOVIET MILITARY INTERVENTION

(24 October - 30 October 1956)

3 November 1956

1. Movements of Soviet Forces and Areas of Fighting
2. Resistance of the Hungarian People to the Soviet Attack
3. The Withdrawal of Soviet Troops from Budapest
4. The Logistic Deployment of New Soviet Forces

CHAPTER V - SECOND SOVIET MILITARY INTERVENTION

1. Relations between the Insurgents and the Hungarian Army
2. The Fighting in Budapest
3. The Fighting in the Industrial Districts of Budapest
4. Fighting in the Provinces to conform to contents of Chapter

CHAPTER VI - THE POLITICAL CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE FIRST MILITARY INTERVENTION

1. Introduction
2. The Popularity of Imre Nagy
3. Doubts Arise about Mr. Nagy's Position
4. Delegations' Limited Access to Prime Minister Nagy before 29 October
5. Mr. Nagy's Denials
6. Mr. Nagy's ^{Detention} Captivity in the Communist Party Headquarters
7. Was an Invitation Actually Extended?

CHAPTER VII - THE POLITICAL BACKGROUND OF THE SECOND SOVIET INTERVENTION

1. The Political Position of Mr. Kádár Prior to 4 November
2. Mr. Kádár's relations with Mr. Nagy
3. The Overthrow of Mr. Nagy's Government
4. The Establishment of Mr. Kádár's Government
5. Conclusions

CHAPTER VIII - THE QUESTION OF THE PRESENCE AND THE UTILIZATION
OF THE SOVIET ARMED FORCES IN HUNGARY

Introductory paragraphs

- A. Post-war International Instruments Governing Hungary's International Status
- B. Applicability of these International Instruments to the Soviet Military Interventions
- C. The Demand for Withdrawal of Soviet Armed Forces
- D. Question of the Withdrawal of Soviet Armed Forces after 4 November 1956
- E. Final Observations

CHAPTER IX - BACKGROUND AND AIMS OF THE UPRISING

Introduction

- I. The Background of the Uprising
 - II. The Declared Aims of the Uprising
 1. The Nature of the Uprising
 2. The Resolutions and Manifestoes of 20 - 23 October 1956
 3. Analysis of the Demands
 - (a) Stated at the outset of the uprising
 - (b) Economic demands
 - (c) Cultural demands
 - III. Attitude of the Hungarian People to the AVH
- ANNEXES

CHAPTER X - STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS AND THE ORIGINS OF ARMED CONFLICT IN BUDAPEST

1. The Student Meetings on 22 October
2. How the Demonstrations were Initiated and Organized
3. Demonstrations at the Petöfi and Bem Statues
4. Demonstration at the Parliament
5. Demolition of Stalin's Statue
6. The First Shots
7. Further Developments
8. Parliament Building on 25 October

CHAPTER XI - REVOLUTIONARY AND WORKERS' COUNCILS

- I. Revolutionary Councils
 - A. Territorial Councils:
 - i. The Provinces
 - ii. The Transdanubian National Council
 - iii. Budapest
 - B. Functional and Representative Councils:
 - i. Students and Youth
 - ii. Armed Forces
 - iii. The Revolutionary Committee of Hungarian Intellectuals

- C. Establishment of Revolutionary Committees within Government Departments
- D. Efforts for the Co-ordination of Revolutionary Councils and Committees
- E. Contacts of Revolutionary Councils within the Government

Conclusion

II. Workers' Councils in Factories

- A. The Establishment and Function of Workers' Councils
- B. Authorization and Encouragement of Workers' Councils by Trade Unions, the Party and the Government

CHAPTER XII - REASSERTION OF POLITICAL RIGHTS (26 October - 3 November)

1. The Transitional Period: The National Government of 27 October (26 - 29 October)
2. Abolition of the One-Party System and Establishment of Inner Cabinet of 30 October
3. Rebirth of Political Parties
4. The Streamlined Coalition Government of 3 November

CHAPTER XIII - SOVIET INTERVENTION UNDER THE PRESENT REGIME

1. Soviet Administration of Hungary
2. Soviet Repressive Measures
3. Relationship of Workers' Councils and Soviet Authorities
4. Attitude towards the Government of Hungary
5. The Reactivation of the Hungarian Communist Party
6. The Abduction of Premier Imre Nagy
7. Conclusions

CHAPTER XIV - POLITICAL RIGHTS AFTER THE REVOLUTION

I. Workers' Councils

- A. Relationship of the Workers' Councils and the Government
- B. The Role of the Communist Party in the Workers' Councils
- C. Workers' Councils and Trade Unions

II. Post-Revolutionary Status of Political Organisations

- A. Negotiations with Political Parties
- B. The Fate of the other Organizations

CHAPTER XV - DEPORTATIONS

1. Introduction
2. Investigation by the Committee
3. Seizure of Deportees
4. Experience of Deportees in the USSR
5. Admission of Deportations by Soviet Authorities

CHAPTER XVI - OTHER VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS

Preliminary Remarks

- A. Hostilities
- B. Repression
- C. The spectre of the AVH
- D. Human Rights ?

CHAPTER
XVII

CONCLUSIONS